

LYRIC AND DANCE ARE CROWNED AT THE CASTELL DE PERALADA FESTIVAL

- Sacred work Messa da Requiem by Verdi will raise the curtain on the 32nd Castell de Peralada Festival, organised by the Castell de Peralada Foundation. The Festival will be held from 5 July to 17 August with a total of 22 shows.
- Theatre director Oriol Broggi will be making his opera début by directing a new performance of Mozart's The Magic Flute, a new festival production, in an edition with a high opera content in which, as well as four operas, singers Javier Camarena, Jonas Kaufmann and Plácido Domingo will be the stars of an exceptional week of lyric.
- Folia by choreographer Mourad Merzouki will bring the curtain down on an edition that will welcome Giselle by the Ballet du Capitole de Toulouse in a version by Kader Belarbi, the flamenco poetry of María Pagés and the great goddess of dance Svetlana Zakharova.
- Santana, Rufus Wainwright, Carla Bruni, Kool & The Gang, Serrat and the world première of Sílvia Pérez Cruz & Marco Mezquida, stars of the Summer of Music.
- Counter-tenor Xavier Sabata will be the resident artist of an edition in which Handel and Baroque become one of the leitmotivs of the festival.

Barcelona, 14 March 2018. The programme for the 32nd Castell de Peralada Festival, organised by the Castell de Peralada Foundation, has been announced today. The presentation was made in the Hall of Mirrors of the Gran Teatre del Liceu, in the presence of president of the Castell de Peralada Foundation, Isabel Suqué, and the director of the Castell de Peralada Festival. Oriol Aquilà.

JULIOL - AGOST 2019 he launch event presented the poster for this year's festival, which features 22 shows to be held between 6 July and 17 August with a budget of 4.4 million euros. Also presented was the pictorial work that Spanish multidisciplinary artist Lita Cabellut, internationally acclaimed as one of the leading women artists of the day, has created for the festival. The most emotive moment came when Isabel Suqué announced the creation of the Carmen Mateu Prize for music and dance, which will be presented next summer during the Festival.

A festival with a plan and an identity

"For you". This is how the Peralada Festival is defined by its director Oriol Aguilà. A unique cultural event, with a strong identity and devoted summer after summer to the audience. After the presentation of the whole of the festival line-up, no doubt remained: lyric and dance are its essence and its raison d'être.

True to itself, the 32nd edition will open with Verdi's Requiem, which will feature the Orquestra Simfònica de Barcelona i Nacional de Catalunya under the baton of Giampaolo Bisanti. The voices of the Coro Intermezzo and soloists Leah Crocetto, Ekaterina Gubanova, Charles Castronovo and Alexander Vinogradov will sing to the memory of Carmen Mateu, alma mater of the music festival. The evening of 27 July sees the start of the lyric week with a recital by tenor Javier Camarena in the Carme Church. This is followed the next day by a concert with the leading tenor of the day, German Jonas Kaufmann, who returns to the festival accompanied for the occasion by the Choir and Orchestra of the Teatro Real de Madrid. The cherry on top of the weekend's cake comes on 29 July with a concert version of the opera Thais starring Plácido Domingo and Ermonela Jaho in the lead roles, and with the resident line-ups of the Teatro Real for the second evening at the festival. Josep Bros will be celebrating his silver anniversary with an extraordinary special programme for Peralada. On 5 August, Xavier Sabata will star in Rinaldo, the famous opera by Handel, in the 1731 version, which comes to the festival as a concert for the first time. The counter-tenor, the resident artist at the Peralada 2018 festival, will sing alongside Núria Rial, Hillary Summers, Mary-Ellen Nesi, Juan Sancho, Josep-Ramon Oliver with music performed by Vespres D'Arnadí conducted by Dani Espasa.

One of the highlights of the summer is undoubtedly the opera début of theatre director Oriol Broggi with a new Festival production. Broggi will be directing the opera of his life, Mozart's The Magic Flute, under the music direction of Josep Pons and with the participation of the Orguestra Simfònica i Cor del Gran Teatre del Liceu. An international cast headed by Adrian Erod, Liparit Avetisyan, Olga Kulchynska and Kathryn Lewek and featuring the participation of Anaïs Constans, the winner of the 2017 Castell de Peralada Festival Prize in the Viñas Competition. The opera Acis and Galatea, also by Handel, with stage direction by the youthful Rafael R. Villalobos, will bring the lyric season to a close on 8 August in the Carme Cloister with a new Peralada brand première, with Vespres D'Arnadí conducted by Fausto Nardi and the voices of Roger Padullés, Lucía Martín-Carton, Víctor Sordo, Hugo Bolívar and Josep-Ramon Olivé.

Dance will shine once more at Peralada with some great names. On 13 July, the Ballet du Capitole de Toulouse, directed by Kader Belarbi, will be presenting a new Giselle in Spain. María Pagés will be presenting Una Oda al Tiempo in Catalonia on 20 July. The great Svetlana Zakharova will be premièring Amore in Spain alongside stars from the Bolshoi on 13 August. The festival will end with Folia, a proposal that is as original as it is daring, by choreographer Mourad Merzouki. A multidisciplinary show with dance, hip-hop and Baroque music that aims to open up the festival to new audiences.

In the Summer of Music, the international accent will be provided by Rufus Wainwright (7 July), Carla Bruni (21 July), Santana (11 August) and disco-funk line-up Kool & The Gang (15 August). Serrat, the artist who has appeared the most times on the Peralada stage, will be starting his Mediterraneo Da Capo tour in Catalonia on 6 July, and on 9 August, the duo of Sílvia Pérez Cruz & Marco Mezquida will be presenting their first collaboration together for the very first time.

This summer, two new stages are premiering to offer cultural experiences in new formats. On 12 July, Finca Malaveïna (Garriguella) will be hosting an evening with viticulture and jazz in a dream setting with the Ignasi Terraza Trio. To mark the 25th anniversary of Golf Peralada, one of the spectacular terraces of the Hotel Peralada Wine Spa & Golf becomes the perfect stage on which to enjoy an evening of Cabaret; Xavier

Peter and the Wolf with the Brodas Bros is this year's Petit Peralada show. It's coming to Peralada with the Orquestra Simfònica del Vallès, in collaboration with SonarKids. Classical music, hip-hop, urban culture and literature in a fresh show for all the family. Once again this year, to thank to the town of Peralada, a free concert has been organised in the Plaça Gran with Vespres D'Arnadí and Dani Espasa, who will be performing Handel's Water Music and Music for the Royal Fireworks.

Alzheimer's Evening at the Peralada Festival. Ongoing charity project

As part of its Corporate Responsibility policy, the Castell de Peralada Foundation is collaborating again in organising the Alzheimer's Evening on 20 July in benefit of the ACE Foundation, a private institution devoted to the diagnosis, treatment, research and support for people with Alzheimer's and other dementias.

Mediterranean cuisine in the heart of the Empordà

The culinary offer of the Castell de Peralada Festival becomes one of this year's improvements thanks to the awarding of a Michelin star to Castell Peralada Restaurant, which is both a challenge and a responsibility for Xavier Sagristà, Toni Gerez and the team, who have designed for this year's Festival an haute cuisine offer that reinterprets the culinary tradition creatively with avant-garde proposals.

The offer is complemented with the Restaurant "La Parrilla" an open-air buffet where diners can taste their specialities to live music before or after the show. Also new this year is the "Blue & Rosé Festival", somewhere to enjoy the best tapas accompanied by Peralada wines and cavas. Outside the castle site is the Restaurant l'Olivera, with the Mediterranean cuisine of the Hotel Peralada Wine Spa & Golf.

Bus service from Barcelona to Peralada

CASTEL to ensure good and easy travel to the Peralada castle venue, for PERAL Athe fourth year running, there will be a Festival bus service. On the days with a performance in the Castle Park Auditorium, a JULIOL - AGOST 2018 us will leave Barcelona for Peralada.

Ticket sales:

Tickets go on sale today, Wednesday 14 March, at 1 pm at www.festivalperalada.com and on + 34 902 37 47 37.

Programme

05/07 Verdi's Requiem

06/07 Serrat Mediterraneo da capo

07/08 Rufus Wainwright

12/07 An Evening at Malaveïna

13/07 Ballet du Capitole de Toulouse Giselle

20/07 María Pagés Compañía Una oda al tiempo

21/07 Carla Bruni French Touch

27/07 Javier Camarena

28/07 Jonas Kaufmann

29/07 Opera in concert of Thaïs by Massenet

03/08 Josep Bros 25th anniversary

05/08 Opera in concert of Rinaldo by Handel

06 i 07/08 Opera The Magic Flute by Mozart

08/08 Opera Acis and Galatea by Handel

09/08 Sílvia Pérez Cruz & Marco Mezquida

11/08 Santana Divination tour

12/08 Encore An Evening of Cabaret with Xavier Sabata

13/08 Svetlana Zakharova and stars from the Bolshoi, Amore

14/08 Peter and the Wolf with Brodas Bros and the OSV

15/08 Kool & The Gang

16/08 Water Music and Music for the Royal Fireworks by Handel

17/08 Folia Dance, Hip Hop and Baroque music

Thank you very much for your support!

More information

Ruth Abuin

Communication and Press

@: ruth.abuin@grupperalada.com
Tel. +34 93 503 86 46 / 696 65 57 39