RAMÓN TEBAR DEBUTS WITH THE COPENHAGEN PHILHARMONIC

Ramón Tebar returns to Denmark and makes his debut with the Copenhagen Philharmonic conducting the opening of its concert season.

Valencia, Spain (Sep. 13, 2022).- The Spanish conductor Ramón Tebar, returns to Europe after finishing the Arantzazu Festival of which he has just been appointed Artistic Director, and after finishing the season with presence in recent months in Vienna, Sweden and Finland.

Tebar opens the season of the Copenhagen Philharmonic in its Concert Hall (Konservatoriets Koncertsal). A symphony orchestra with European roots and depth, with Christoph Eschenbach as guest principal conductor and who will also be in charge of opening the Jeunesse Musicale Season in the historic Wiener Musikverein Concert Hall in the coming weeks.

In this symphonic concert, entitled On the Hunt of Lost Time, which will be conducted by the Spanish conductor, Ramón Tebar, part of the music that inspired the French writer Marcel Proust will be performed. For him, music was a way to explore and challenge language, and in his great autobiographical masterpiece, In Search of Lost Time, he takes us through a mosaic of memories within the French upper class in the decades around the year 1900, in a time when the music of Beethoven, Wagner and Saint-Saëns were part of the daily life of Proust and his entourage. The program includes music that inspired him, from Beethoven's Romances for violin and orchestra with Henning Kraggerud as soloist, the Prelude and Liebestod from Tristan und Isolde by Wagner, to the Third Symphony with "Organ" by the French composer Camille Saint-Saëns, which will allow the organ of the Concert Hall of the Konservatoriets Koncertsal to sound in all its greatness under the hands of the organist Bine Bryndorf.

The concert will take place on September 17 at 18:00h. For more information:
